“He’s the big brother to my daughters,” says Michael, one of Carver’s owners, “and my first born.” This lovable, mellow pal even snuggles with Jupiter the cat! With all of that going for him, his “trash diving” habit is tolerated. Barley is a smart, athletic dog, who plays a clever game with the backyard magpies. He lures them in with a bone used as bait, and then pounces from his hiding place to chase them. He also plays catch with himself by propelling a tennis ball against a step and catching the rebound. Barley might be the best Christmas gift Michael has received from his wife Lauren. 🐾
